Description

A charming oil on panel depicting a picturesque view of Wolfgangsee, a famous alpine lake in the Salzkammergut region of Austria. The composition shows a rocky shoreline with slender pines overlooking the calm waters of the lake, while in the background rises the iconic Schafberg massif, a prominent peak dominating the landscape. The scene is enlivened by a small figure in the foreground, adding a narrative dimension and providing scale to the landscape. The artist uses a warm and subtle palette, contrasting the deep shadows of the foreground with the golden light illuminating the distant mountains, creating a calm and contemplative atmosphere characteristic of 19th-century Austrian landscape painting. The painting is signed and dated 1871. On the reverse of the
