Description

Large baluster-shaped vase in white glazed earthenware with a crackled glaze, in a Chinese style, unsigned. It features an elegant baluster silhouette with a slightly tapered neck and a wide, flared opening. The surface is covered with a glossy glaze displaying a fine network of decorative crackles. Vintage 20th century, 1970s-1980s. 35cm high, approximately 17-18cm maximum diameter. Very good overall condition. Natural crazing in the glaze, resulting from the age of the enamel, complements older, slightly tinted cracks. The inside of the neck shows a slight yellowing in the internal rings of the glaze, due to firing or aging. No cracks or chips observed. Approximately 2-3kg.
