Description

Magnificent antique Victorian brooch in 14K gold and silver, pavé-set with Antwerp rose-cut diamonds and enamel. This incredible brooch depicts an enameled jockey wearing a purple silks and helmet, strongly reminiscent of the colors of the Queen of England. The jockey rides a thoroughbred entirely paved with diamonds. The meticulous detail of this rare antique jewel is truly remarkable. Victorian Period. Metals: 14K yellow gold (585/1000), 925 silver. Stones and ornamentation: Antwerp rose-cut diamonds, estimated color L, estimated weight 0.50 carats, enamel. Dimensions: 17 mm x 52 mm. In its original case "GEO. BIRLEY, 12 Great Western Arcade, BIRMINGHAM". Ref. 28100006
