Description

Late 19th-century vase decorated with phoenixes, attributed to Baccarat. A very beautiful vase decorated with three phoenixes in three reserves, each depicted in a different pose. The vase is exquisitely crafted on all sides and rests on a beautiful solid bronze base. An exceptional piece due to its decoration, quality of execution, and size (27 cm high). The magnificent uranium green color makes this vase truly unique. This vase is attributable to the Baccarat factory, where similar pieces can be found in lighting fixtures. Excellent overall condition, without any scratches. A virtually unique collector's item. Shipping available within France and worldwide via secure, insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection possible in person at Mas d'Avalrich, Montéscot
