Description

Extremely rare and exceptional mechanical gilt bronze business card press from the Napoleon III period. This rare model features a rich Neo-Renaissance decoration: ram's head uprights, musical putti, and a pine cone handle. The central cube is finely engraved with playing card suits (hearts, clubs). Remarkable chasing work, a functional worm gear, and period "split screw" mounting. A truly distinguished object for a study, office, luxury boutique or jewelry shop, entrance hall, or living room... in short, the places this beautiful piece could grace are numerous.
