Description

Empire style desk in solid mahogany, richly adorned with gilt bronze mounts. This elegant desk features a beautiful mahogany frame with three drawers in the front. The tapered legs terminate in gilt claw feet and are decorated with winged bronze figures, typical of the Empire style. The sides and front also feature lovely chased bronze mounts that highlight the quality of the piece. The writing surface is covered in antique leather with a gilt border, ideal for writing. The overall effect is a balanced silhouette and a highly desirable decorative presence in a study or library. This piece is inspired by early 19th-century furniture, in the spirit of the Empire style popularized under Napoleon Bonaparte. A decorative and functional desk, perfect for a classic decor or for an interior that blends antique
