Free delivery in France under our responsibility.
A Louis Philippe period desk in speckled maple and cherry wood, restored in our workshop and in perfect condition (I am a cabinetmaker and furniture restorer, a graduate of the École Boulle for 43 years). It features four drawers in speckled maple across the front, a cherry wood top, and cherry wood legs. The leather has been replaced. The drawer interiors are oak and slide smoothly. The locks are in good condition, one key per drawer. Height under the central drawer: 61 cm.
