

18th-century Meissen Porcelain Cup And Saucer, Circa 1740

564 EUR

Signature : Meissen

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A fine Meissen porcelain cup and saucer, c. 1740, the cup and saucer each decorated with a large spray of flowers, together with smaller sprays and individual flowers, on a white ground, the cup with a slightly oval rim and an elaborate scroll handle, the rims of cup and saucer and the handle decorated in puce. Maker's marks: Underglaze blue crossed swords marks to both pieces. Incised "63" on saucer. Measurements: Height of cup: 6.9 cm (2.7 in) Diameter of saucer: 13 cm (5.1 in) Condition - Excellent. No damage or restoration. Very light wear. Shipping/Import: Free to most destinations. EU customers, PLEASE NOTE: Our price for this item includes all shipping and import costs (customs duty, clearance fees, and VAT). For other destinations, please inquire. Please note that, due to customs

Dealer

Lefays

Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service

Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,

Chard TA20

procedures, it may be necessary for the buyer to pay import fees; in that case, we will refund them immediately.