

Silver Jug Circa 1840, France

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 14 cm

Description

A silver teapot resting on a flat base, with a bulbous body. The spout is decorated with gadroons and foliage. The hinged lid is slightly domed and surmounted by a finial in the shape of a spinning top. It has a brown wooden handle in the form of a crosier. Minerva hallmark, 950/1000. Maker: Charles Antoine Lenglet, Paris, 1823-1843. Height: 14 cm Diameter: 8.7 cm Weight: 245 g Capacity: 0.3 L Good condition, with some signs of wear.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600