Description

Louis XV Period Cabriolet Armchair - 18th Century. This charming Louis XV period cabriolet armchair, crafted in the 18th century from molded and carved beechwood, rests on four cabriole legs typical of the style, joined by a gracefully curved and elegantly shaped apron. The cabriolet back has a soft and comfortable line, while the slightly recessed armrests rest on delicately curved supports. The whole piece displays a beautiful harmony of proportions characteristic of 18th-century French furniture. The upholstery is covered in a short-pile velvet with a floral pattern, in warm and classic tones, perfectly in keeping with the spirit of the armchair. The seat remains comfortable and in good condition, still suitable for everyday use. This antique chair retains a beautiful decorative
