Description

A miniature hairwork piece depicting a large sheaf of wheat surrounded by a geometric frieze, in a wooden frame, dating from the Napoleon III period, 19th century. This hairwork piece is in good condition. It has its original domed glass. Note: a few old wormholes in the frame, light scratches and signs of age, see photos.

_____ * The origin of these hairwork pieces stems from preserving precious memories of loved ones, living or deceased. Their diversity can be surprising: jewelry, knee pads, fans, buttons, embroidery, small pictures, and paintings. These objects were made from the late 18th century and throughout the 19th century, by both ladies and young women, as well as by talented artists.

Dimensions: Frame 15 cm x 16.7 cm; Miniature
