Description

COD 5791 Italian writing table from the late 19th century. Carved chestnut wood, beautifully designed and attractively furnished. Finished for the center writing table, featuring a front drawer with a working key and good capacity. The top is a good size, upholstered in velvet with some minor signs of wear. The furniture is very solid and stable, resting on four onion-shaped legs (see photo). This side table can easily be placed in various locations around the home, suitable for antique dealers and interior decorators, and is in good condition. As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
