Description

French School, in the spirit of Barbizon.
Charming landscape depicting a path winding through undergrowth, opening onto a sunlit clearing in the distance. The composition is enlivened by tall tree trunks framing the scene and guiding the eye towards the horizon. The brushwork is supple and vibrant, with a palette of deep greens, brown earths, and bluish grays that lend the whole a soft and slightly misty atmosphere. Through its treatment of light and its sensitive approach to nature, this work belongs to the tradition of naturalistic landscapes inspired by the Barbizon School.
