Description

A ceramic plate created in Sant-Vicens, Perpignan, between 1950 and 1960, depicting an enameled design of a bird in flight, black on a brown background with a white border, pigmented with black. Jean Lurçat (1892-1966). Signed on the back "Dessin J. Lurçat Sant-Vicens VC 6". In his early period, he worked with Miró and then Gomila, his workshop manager. In 1951, Jean Lurçat visited Firmin Bauby and entrusted him with his ceramic creations. He stayed twice a year in Sant-Vicens until his death in 1966. He created designs, shapes, and imagined colors, which he then submitted to Gumersind Gomila, the workshop manager. Diameter: 25 cm, weight: 0.576 kg. In good original and used condition, no cracks, chips, or breaks. The photos are an integral part of the description; for larger photos,
