Description

Franck Innocent (1912-1983) - Still Life with Oranges and Flowers, 1941. Oil on canvas, signed and dated lower right. Gilt frame.
Artwork: 60 x 75.5 cm; with frame: 73.5 x 86.7 cm. A student of Marcel Couchaux, Franck Innocent (1912-1983) was a member of the Rouen Artists Society from the age of 15. In 1936, he held his first exhibition at the Galerie Legrip in Rouen. A favorite painter and friend of Hervé Bazin, the latter noted his quality as a "super-creator," capable of providing a personal vision in his painting and placing the materiality of the things he represented above all else. Innocent thus proceeded by touches, like a fragmented puzzle that he reassembled with his brush at the end. In this large still life painted in 1941, the year of his second solo exhibition in
