Description

Magnificent and rare eight-drawer cabinet without crossbars, richly decorated with marquetry forming a trellis enclosing quatrefoils; projecting front and rear uprights with simulated fluting. Gilt bronze mounts. Gray marble top with a molded groove. A very fine Parisian piece, unstamped but undoubtedly from the workshop of a great master cabinetmaker of the Transitional period (attribution to be researched). In very good condition, fully restored by our workshop, finished with a natural French polish. Includes eight identical keys with the original locks, all in working order.
