Description

Exceptional oil on canvas by Paul-Émile Pissarro (1884-1972), son of the famous Impressionist painter Camille Pissarro. After his father's death in 1903, Claude Monet, who lived nearby, became his friend and significantly influenced his work. Paul-Émile Pissarro's works are sought after by collectors worldwide. Landscapes animated with fishermen, bathers, etc., are rare, among the painter's finest subjects, and regularly exceed EUR10,000 at auction ! In specialized galleries, they even sell for EUR20,000 to EUR30,000 ! This painting offers everything an art lover could hope for in a work by Paul-Émile Pissarro: a large format of 54 x 65 cm, a painting in perfect condition, remarkably framed, a rare subject, and a contrasting and colorful composition ! Note the perfectly mastered
