Description

Oil painting on panel mounted on wood, indistinctly signed and dated lower left: Saverys 47. Measuring 60.5cm x 45.5cm. Depicting A Bather, painted in 1947. This painting represents the artist's early expressionist period before his transition to abstraction in 1948. Jan Saverys (1924-2017), a Belgian painter, was the son of Albert Saverys. He studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Ghent from 1943 to 1946 and at the Grande Chaumière in Paris from 1946 to 1948. He learned and began his artistic journey with expressionist techniques from his father before dedicating himself, from 1948 onwards, to a completely different style: lyrical abstraction. His works, chaotic yet harmonious, are created using both a dark palette and vibrant colors. He most often works with charcoal and pencil. In 1948, he
