Description

After Pierre-Jules Mène (1810-1879):
"Plock".Lovely bronze sculpture with a nuanced brown patina representing the greyhound, named "Plock", straddling a fan.Signed on the terrace.End of the 19th century.Good condition.Although made as a pendant, the Greyhound with a fan was less produced than the Greyhound with a ball (Jiji) and is therefore rarer. This is one of the two male greyhounds treated by Pierre-Jules Mène with the Spanish Greyhound (Diego).
