Description

Pair of hand-knotted wool Tabriz rugs, originating from Iran. In the Dozar format, approximately 100 x 200 cm, these rugs measure 140 cm wide by 192 cm long each. This pair of rugs is in very good, clean condition; it is indeed rare to find a pair from around 1950 in such fine condition. The vibrant colors are: red, sky blue, black, straw yellow, and almond green. The wool is lustrous and soft. A large, almond-shaped floral medallion, accompanied by two pendants, is set on a six-sided red field with highly decorated corners. The rug features an abundant floral design, creating a beautiful effect. The pile shows slight wear consistent with age, and the edges are in very good condition, with clean, short fringes. We also offer a pair of early 20th-century Sarough rugs measuring 135 cm by 197 cm,
