Description

COD 11487-1A pair of French armchairs from the first half of the 19th century. These exceptionally elegant and rare furniture feature neo-Gothic decorations, dating back to the Charles X era. These armchairs are finely veneered and inlaid in palisander and maple, with relief ornamentation. Resting on four sturdy legs, the front legs are distinguished by refined cabinetmaking craftsmanship, creating neo-Gothic motifs and geometric inlays.The rear legs are saber-shaped. The armrests are also exquisitely crafted, featuring two small twisted columns supporting a sculpture reminiscent of a shell (see photo). These armchairs are inlaid with precise geometric decorations and delightful floral motifs, making them extremely pleasing to the eye. Upholstered in blue fabric with minor
