Description

Louis XV Transition style curved console table, early 19th century. The openwork, undulating, crossbow-shaped apron is decorated with shells: one along the apron and one in each corner, with half-shells applied to the wall. It rests on two scrolled feet connected by a wide, openwork shell. The whole is topped with a white marble slab with a corbelled edge, following the curve of the console. The rich patina, with its multiple hues, is due to wear and natural aging. Very stable, with a small restoration to the marble. * Worldwide shipping * * PAYMENT: BANK TRANSFER * * Payment by bank transfer, check, PayPal, or credit card * Bank details: Tel: France: 0681013179 Tel: International: 0033681013179 Thank you for your visit
