Manuel Virella (1944-2019) - Spring Song

650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

Oil on panel. Signed and dated. This spring scene testifies to the talent of the artist Manuel Virella, originally from Cádiz. Here, his brushstrokes come alive, animating the canvas. Virella deploys a vibrant and generous oil paint texture, where the almost sculptural impasto creates a play of light in relief, allowing the color to be not only seen but also felt as an organic substance pulsating on the canvas. The heart of the composition lies in this springtime sensation that awakens the senses; the viewer can almost perceive the scent of lavender and the freshness of the undergrowth. Through a blend of purples, violets, and emerald greens, Virella captures the precise moment when the sun filters through the tree trunks, causing tiny sparks of light to appear to dance across the flowering canopy.
