Description

Two small stoneware dishes decorated with abstract designs. France, circa 1960-1980. - Dish with gray and beige abstract decoration, signed Héraud. - Dish with brown, black, and red decoration, marked Poterie de Sancerre. Robert Héraud or Annie Maume? Very good condition. Robert Héraud (1926-2010), a painter originally from Sancerre, developed a passion for pottery after meeting potters from La Borne and Saint-Amand-de-Puisaye. Alongside his painting, he began working with ceramics and opened a gallery in Sancerre where he exhibited his paintings, works by ceramicists from La Borne, tapestries, and Scandinavian furniture. He exhibited at the Musée du Berry in Bourges and at the Musée des Arts et Traditions Populaires. He met Annie Maume, whom he trained in
