3 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 17,5 cm approx

Description

18-karat gold bracelet set with faceted Perpignan garnets. The stones display a characteristic deep red hue, enlivened by beautiful light effects thanks to the faceting and the foil setting.

Perpignan garnets, very fashionable in the 19th century, are emblematic of jewelry from the South of France. Their brilliance is enhanced by a thin metal foil placed beneath the stone, designed to intensify its light. French work from the late 19th century, horse's head hallmark. Condition: very good overall condition. Note a few dents on the reverse of the setting. Functional ratchet clasp with safety chain. Gross weight: 12.9g
