reminiscent of a sculptor's work in terms of its subject matter and the emphasized intensity of the drapery rendering. More specifically, that of Pajou, particularly in the schematic rendering of the face with its puffed cheeks and architectural nose. All the more so since this "Neoclassical" sculptor regularly worked in red chalk. Free and insured shipping within mainland France. The drawing is on display and available for pickup at my stall at the Saint-Ouen flea market. Please don't hesitate to ask if you have any questions
