Description

Stunning Murano glass chandelier. The glass is hand-cut into leaf shapes. This chandelier consists of a gilded metal frame and 24 translucent, pearly Murano glass leaves. To the touch, the leaves are smooth on the outside and have a granite-like texture on the inside. The leaves are arranged on four levels and each has a hole for secure attachment to the frame. The chandelier is equipped with four bulbs for optimal lighting, highlighting the beauty of the glasswork. Impressive craftsmanship. Ideal dimensions. This chandelier exudes great elegance and perfect harmony. Murano glass is world-renowned for its colors and unique craftsmanship, and is the hallmark of Venetian glassworks in Italy.
