Description

Stunning vintage coffee table from the 1970s, designed by French designer JG Picard. This piece is distinguished by its artistic ceramic top, integrated into a solid wood frame. The motif, with its natural hues and typical 1970s graphic style, provides a strong visual presence and a truly decorative character. The forged metal base, both robust and sculptural, reinforces the authentic aesthetic of the whole and underscores its artistic yet functional spirit. The combination of ceramic, wood, and metal makes it a balanced design piece, ideal for a vintage, brutalist, or contemporary interior. Signature visible on the top.
