Description

Émile Cagniart (1851-1911) - Farm in Normandy. Pastel, signed lower left. Framed. Artwork: 15 x 24 cm. A student of Antoine Guillemet, Émile Cagniart (1851-1911) made his debut at the Salon in 1877. An plein air painter, he primarily produced pastels throughout his career, particularly in Normandy where he created luminous landscapes. His specialty was capturing sunlight, evident in his large-format works depicting Parisian boulevards at sunset or in park views. In this pastel, Cagniart portrays a farm bathed in light. In the foreground, hens and a peacock are visible. A golden light illuminates the left gable of the building and the straw, while figures recede towards the vanishing point.
