Description

Large Aubusson knotted wool tapestry. This 17th-century work depicts figures in a natural setting, seemingly going into battle with a mounted knight. Only the horse's neck is visible, richly harnessed. In the background, figures are fleeing. The border is very elaborately worked, similar to those of Isaac Moillon. This tapestry appears to be composed of various antique elements patched together over the years. The result is a highly decorative piece, whose dimensions allow it to be easily displayed in your home. Aubusson, second half of the 17th century. Delivery by carrier: EUR80 in France, EUR200 in the EU, and EUR500 for the rest of the world.
