

Count's Crown - Large Ebony Jewelry Box/casket - Circa 1850

480 EUR

Signature : SMAL au Palais Royal à Paris

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

Large ebony-veneered jewelry box, inlaid with brass stringing and scrolls (Bouille marquetry), with a molded edge and the interior lined with green moiré silk. The lid is adorned with a cartouche engraved with the monogram OML beneath a Count's coronet, as well as the motto Deo et Patriae. A beautiful luxury piece from the 19th century (1840s-50s), reflecting the refined lifestyle of the aristocracy at that time. Our box has been restored, French polished, cleaned, and repolished by our cabinetmaker. It is in very good condition. Length: 28.5cm Width: 21.5 cm Height: 15cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000