Description

French antique clock of the 19th century in the style of Louis XVI. Richly decorated with hand-painted porcelain Sevres style. Attributed to the 1890s. The clock mechanism is in good condition and has undergone a complete revision. The key is also included. The clock mechanism has a chime every half hour and the number of hours accordingly. The case bears the signature of the manufacturer's workshop and an award medal on the back of the mechanism. If you do not want to hear this pleasant ringing of the clock at night, then it is enough not to wind the mechanism responsible for this. After 7 days, the clock will stop striking the bell. Winding the mechanism for the movement will be enough for a week. Dimensions: Height 41 cm. Width 27 cm. Depth 13 cm. Weight 5 kg. We guarantee 100%
