Description

An elegant and refined Limoges porcelain dinner service from the Ancienne Manufacture Royale, founded in 1737. This superb set comprises 71 pieces, providing a complete service. It is distinguished by its delicate "Lavandou" decoration, featuring a finely painted floral motif in the center, enhanced by a slightly bluish border and an elegant octagonal shape. A high-quality piece, characteristic of the Limoges tradition, renowned for the fineness of its porcelain and the delicacy of its decoration. Condition: Very good overall condition, without chips or cracks. Mark on the reverse: Anc. Manufacture Royale Limoges France - Lavandou decoration - indelible decoration. A classic and timeless service, ideal for a beautiful table setting or for enriching a collection of French porcelain.
