Beautiful antique French doll with a porcelain head marked UNIS FRANCE / 301 / 71-149, French made, circa 1930. A classic model from the interwar period, prized for its delicate face, animated eyes, and quality French craftsmanship. The doll has beautiful blue sleeping glass eyes, an open mouth with teeth, unpierced ears, and an original dark brown wig. She is mounted on an antique jointed body, with one leg needing to be reattached (see photos), which does not affect the display. She wears her original antique dress with matching bonnet, as well as her antique shoes, a cohesive and decorative ensemble. A large, well-sized doll, ideal for a collection or display case.
