Description

Glazed ceramic with a raised solar design, featuring a central basin in shades of green surrounded by a stylized radiating motif. The surface and glaze treatment reflects the decorative vocabulary developed by Mithé Espelt from the 1950s onward. The "Sun" model, created in 1958, is characteristic of the artist's work, combining utilitarian function with decorative expression. These objects, intended for everyday use, contributed to the renewal of post-war decorative arts. Very good condition
