Description

Louis XV Cherrywood Jam Cupboard - Late 19th Century. This elegant jam cupboard, crafted from solid cherrywood in the Louis XV style, dates from the late 19th century. It features a beautiful front with a molded door surmounted by a drawer in the frieze. Resting on cabriole legs, characteristic of the Louis XV style, it boasts harmonious proportions. The cherrywood, carefully patinated, reveals a warm and luminous grain. The piece exudes a beautiful authenticity, showcasing meticulous craftsmanship indicative of quality provincial work. The interior, simple yet functional, offers practical storage space. A decorative and functional piece, ideal as a jam cupboard, small sideboard, or accent piece.
