Description

- Oil on canvas. - The painting of Philip IV at Fraga, housed in the Frick Collection, is a masterpiece by Velázquez, where the monarch's sobriety contrasts with the vibrant, almost Impressionistic, rendering of his red and silver silk robe. Painted in the context of a military campaign, the work is distinguished by its refined technique, which gives it a striking texture through short, confident brushstrokes. It testifies to Velázquez's ability to capture the restrained majesty of his sovereign in naturalistic light, transforming a formal outfit into a pure celebration of light and color. - 77 x 105 cm / 91 x 118.5 cm with frame.
