Description

Elegant Italian console table from the 1940s, crafted in wood, walnut and mahogany. The demi-lune top features a refined fan-pattern inlay that enhances the natural wood grain. The piece includes three front drawers and stands on slender legs, with gently shaped front supports, connected by a practical lower shelf. A balanced design combining classic influence with restrained modern lines, typical of the period. In good overall condition, small defect on the right rear corner of the top (see photo) with minor age-related wear. m. 120X40X h 78 cm ref. 707/435
