Description

17th-century oil on canvas painting depicting the Madonna Reading by Francesco Botti (1640-1711). Francesco Botti is considered one of the most interesting and representative figures in the panorama of 17th-century Florentine painting, even though few documentary testimonies of this painter have survived. The most exhaustive are included in the "Catalogue of Florentine painters of the 17th century" by Sandro Bellesi. This painting, characterized by a strong expressiveness, depicts the Virgin Mary with her hands crossed on her chest in a moment of profound devotion and reflection while reading a book. Dimensions with frame: height 91 cm width 76 cm Dimensions without frame: height 78.5 cm width 73 cm
