Description

A charming, lively landscape by Georges Binet, depicting a countryside scene bathed in soft light. In the foreground, free-flowing, flowering vegetation, punctuated by yellow broom, is rendered with a supple and luminous touch. In the background, a female figure accompanied by goats delicately enlivens the composition. This plein air painting, inspired by naturalism and in the spirit of the late 19th century, emphasizes atmosphere and the spontaneity of the subject. Signed lower right. Presented in a beautiful, highly decorative frame.
