Description

A charming and practical serving tray for hot dishes, crafted from patinated silvered bronze (showing signs of use), featuring floral motifs and openwork, rests on an articulated base that extends to the desired length. This beautiful and substantial piece is supported by ten olive-shaped feet and is adjustable (telescopic) to suit various needs. This high-quality serving tray is both practical and elegant, offering exceptional utility and all the qualities required for a convivial and festive table setting (early 20th century). An essential and functional addition to any table.
