Description

Are you looking for a piece that is not just furniture, but a true historical narrative? This late 19th-century pharmacy sideboard represents an unmissable opportunity for those who demand character and significance in their environment. Of refined Italian origin, the piece stands out for its beautiful sage green lacquer, embellished with red and ochre profiles that enhance its elegant lines. The true magnetic core of this work is the six-pointed star, an ancient symbol of alchemy and pharmacy. It represents the union of opposites -- fire and water, male and female -- evoking medical perfection and universal balance. With imposing dimensions (295x87x95H), this counter offers extraordinary functionality thanks to its 4 doors and 4 large drawers. In excellent condition, the furniture
