

A Period Polychrome Art Deco Piece On Marble And Three-color Onyx, By Daum Bar Soigniez

490 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : 50 cm

Description

A very pretty statue of a pheasant on a marble and three-color onyx base. A beautiful subject typical of the French Art Deco school. The pheasant is made of polychrome spelter and is of very fine workmanship. Note the base, with its red and white checkerboard pattern on a black border, which is truly remarkable. In perfect condition, circa 1920. 50 cm long. The figure and base are of very high quality Art Deco; a very beautiful object.
