Description

If you wish to give your space a touch of authentic retro elegance, this rare and stunning 1940s shop counter represents one of the most prestigious opportunities in our collection. Crafted entirely from pine wood, this piece of industrial antiquity stands out for its imposing dimensions (310x245x50 cm), ideal for furnishing large walls or high-profile commercial spaces. The uniqueness of this piece lies in its preservation: it is completely original in every component, keeping the patina and charm of the era intact without compromising its structural integrity. In excellent general condition, the natural beauty of the pine and the clean lines typical of mid-century design make it a versatile element, capable of fitting naturally into a high-end vintage decor or a contemporary-style
