Description

DescriptionThis spelter sculpture titled Le Shoot and signed Lemoyne depicts a footballer captured mid-action as he strikes the ball, conveying a strong sense of movement and athletic balance. The figure leans forward with arms extended for stability, while carefully modeled details in the uniform, boots, and facial expression emphasize the dynamic moment of play. Finished with a dark patinated surface and mounted on a polished marble base, the piece reflects the energetic sporting themes popular in early twentieth-century European decorative sculpture.ArtistLemoyne (dates currently unidentified) is known for small bronze and spelter sculptures depicting sporting and figurative subjects.Artist DetailsLittle documented information is currently available
