Description

Maralunga 3-seater sofa and two armchairs set by Vico Magistretti for Cassina, first edition 1973. The Maralunga set, composed of a 3-seater sofa and two armchairs, features a highly recognizable design. Its rounded, generous lines, with large seat and back cushions, provide undeniable "living room" comfort. The reclining headrests (a signature of the model) allow for a transition from a low to a higher backrest position. Upholstered in brown ribbed fabric, the set accentuates its texture and sculptural presence. An iconic piece from the 1970s, it is both cozy and strikingly graphic in a contemporary interior. Vico Magistretti (1920-2006) is a major figure in post-war Italian design. An architect and designer, he is known for simple, intelligent, and highly functional forms. His collaboration with
