Description

Gouache on paper, unique original work by Jean Boris Lacroix, 1940s. Gouache on paper signed by Jean Boris Lacroix, a rare modernist composition from the 1940s with an almost dreamlike atmosphere. In a soft green monochrome palette, the artist constructs a refined landscape: stylized clouds, a horizon line, and vertical forms evoking architecture or a cypress tree. The subtle interplay of reserved white and flat areas creates a sensation of silence and depth, highly graphic and extremely contemporary. Framed, this work is ideal for a designer interior, where its understated elegance makes it a statement piece. A unique piece, sparsely detailed yet perfectly executed, it exudes a strong presence through its minimalism and balanced forms. Jean Boris Lacroix's work is rooted in a modernist approach where form takes precedence: reduction, rhythm, and composition. His work focuses on the essential and the ability of a few signs to suggest a world, somewhere between abstraction and landscape. This demand for simplicity is the strength and singularity of his work. Gouache paints. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
