Description

1980s Designer Desk in Melamine, Tempered Glass, and Chrome A 1980s designer desk featuring a highly graphic and minimalist design. Rectangular top in brown melamine, with three built-in drawers on the front (visible in the center). Architectural base made of thick tempered glass forming two side panels, which visually lightens the overall look. Chrome crossbar at the bottom, providing rigidity and a "high-tech" touch typical of the era. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
