Description

An icon of 1960s Brazilian design, the "Gran Captain" armchair, also known as the "Jacanda," is a signature creation by Jean Gillon, produced by Italma WoodArt. This model perfectly illustrates the warm and organic aesthetic of Brazilian modernist design. Its sculptural structure in jacaranda wood (Brazilian rosewood), with its robust and elegant lines, showcases exceptional craftsmanship and noble materials. With its generous proportions and comfortable seat, the Gran Captain offers a strong and refined presence, ideal for a contemporary, vintage, or collector's interior. It embodies the perfect balance between design, comfort, and character. The upholstery of the seat will be custom-made according to the client's wishes.
