Description

Elegant and imposing mirror with a pine wood frame, finely carved and gilded with pure gold leaf. The frame is adorned with sophisticated guilloches and beads, while the lower part ends with feral legs and plant decorations. The cymatium also stands out for its richness and elegance, characterized by plant garlands and a central vase adorned with flowers. The mirrors, original from the period, are contemporary with the frame itself. This "palace" mirror is of considerable size and presents itself as a piece of furniture of great elegance and refinement, capable of enriching any environment with taste and class. Lucca (Tuscany) manufacture from the Neoclassical period, second half of the 18th century. Measurements: H x W x D 255 x 119 x
